TRUE LIGHT

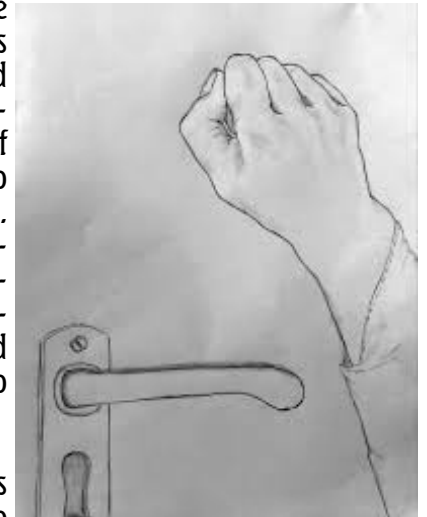

April 8, 2018

Knock on Any Door

Almost without exception behind closed doors of people's homes are those who are hurting physically or emotionally. For as long as man has lived upon this earth he has sought peace of mind, and to be free from pain, but it still eludes him.

Our lives have a way of getting out of control. When this happens circumstances carry us along and it is difficult to cope with the bad times. God doesn't take away all the pain, but He helps us to deal with it. He also helps us to get our lives back in control and to grow from the hurt we have experienced. We can really find that peace of mind that we have searched so hard to find if we look in the right place for it. My friend, it is found in a good relationship with the Lord. When we surrender our stubborn will and truly accept Christ into our heart we will find that many things that used to be so difficult will fade away.

The great Gospel of Christ (Romans 1:16) contains the power of God unto salvation. The world needs the gospel very much. The fast pace of living - also the desire for material possessions - has never been greater. Selfishness is prevalent in the lives of people. It is quite difficult to get people to slow down and really listen to the gospel. I am convinced that the gospel is the answer to the world's ills.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could knock on any door and find Christians living there?

Dale Grissom, reprinted from Feb. 25, 1990 True Light

“For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes, for the Jew first and also for the Greek.” Romans 1:16, NKJ
