TRUE LIGHT

June 24, 2018

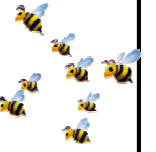

Are you a Buzzard or a Bee?

In God's Little Devotion Book for Couples there is the story of the buzzards and the bees:

Buzzards and bees have a major difference in their feeding habits. Buzzards fly overhead searching for dead animals. When they spy a decaying carcass, they swoop down to gorge themselves on it, stripping it to the bare bones. Honeybees, by comparison, only look for sweet nectar. They are very discriminating as they search through the flowers in the garden.

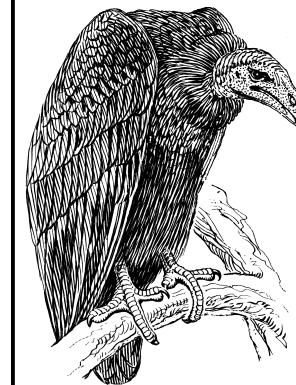

Buzzards and Bees always find what they are seeking.

Buzzards produce nothing in their feeding, except fear in those who behold them at work. Honeybees produce honeycombs, dripping with honey, for health and palate benefits to others.

Just as the bees and buzzards always find what they are seeking, so a spouse can generally find what he or she is looking for. If you focus on your partner's faults and mistakes, you'll find them. Your relationship will become one to be avoided, not cherished. On the other hand, if you seek out the goodness in your spouse, you can find that, too! And you may be surprised at how sweet your relationship can become.

*(Love) is not easily angered,
It keeps no record of wrongs...
But rejoices with the truth.
1 Corinthians 13: 5.6 NIV*

Enthusiasm

Enthusiasm is contagious. It's difficult to remain neutral or indifferent in the presence of a positive thinker. Be enthusiastic today about every area of your life - your family, your friends, your co-workers, your work, your hobbies, your church, but especially your dreams and your potential to achieve them.

Many of the Bible's greatest individuals were overflowing with enthusiasm. One of them, the apostle Paul, tried to pass that excitement to his fellow Christians when he wrote, "Finally, brethren, whatever is true ... honorable ... right ... pure ... lovely ... of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, let your mind dwell on these things" (Philippians 4:8 NASB). Enthusiasm fuels hope and joy.

People gravitate toward a person who radiates the hope and joy only Jesus offers, bringing with them unique opportunities, sound advice, and valuable resources. Today, strive to be a person of enthusiasm by focusing on the higher things of God and where He is taking us. We may not have arrived yet, but I sure like our destination when we get to the end of the journey. Now that's something I can be enthusiastic about!
