TRUE LIGHT

August 26, 2018

MY RULES FOR LIFE

1. I try never to say anything behind a man's back that would give me the least embarrassment to say to his face.
2. I try never to speak back to personal critics - friends do not need to hear the defense and enemies would not believe it.
3. Every day I greet every person I see with a smile and make a special effort to do so if the person is poor or in unfortunate circumstances.
4. The first thing when I awaken in the morning I plan what my duty for the day is and try to go beyond it.
5. Every day I read from the Bible and some other good book - feeding the mind and soul is more important than the body.
6. I try to pay every debt I owe on time and always save something from every paycheck, however small.
7. I like people and never harbor any malice or hatred toward any person in the world. I like places and have yet to be anywhere I do not like. I go there with the intention of liking the place.
8. I am a confirmed optimist, believing that even in this life evil men will be punished by their own unhappiness and good men will be rewarded.
9. I try to close each day as if it were the last day I'd be on earth, closing the books on all regrets, worries and annoyance.
10. The last thing I do at night is to count one by one the blessings of the day. This makes me so thankful and happy that I soon drift into pleasant sleep. In this spirit, I hope to close life's journey and drift into eternity.

GIVING OUR SUPPORT:

The Elders of the congregation have made the decision to help support Kason Lawrence while he is a Bible major at Harding University.

SHEEP DON'T WALLOW

The story is told of a lamb and its mother. It seems that the lamb passed a pig pen each morning on the way to the pasture with its mother. Watching the pigs wallow in the mud seemed like fun, so the lamb asked his mother if he could jump the fence and wallow in the cool mud. She replied, "No." Then the lamb asked the usual question, "Why?" The mother just said, "Sheep don't wallow." This did not satisfy the lamb. He felt that she had "put him down," exercised force which she shouldn't have, etc. As soon as his mother was out of sight, the lamb ran to the pig pen and jumped the fence. He was soon feeling the cool mud on his feet, his legs and soon his stomach. After a few moments he decided he had better go back to his mother, but he couldn't. He was stuck! Mud and wool do not mix. His pleasure had become his prison. He was hopelessly bound by his own folly. He cried out and was rescued by the kindly farmer. When cleaned and returned to the fold, his mother said, "Remember - sheep don't wallow." Sin is like that. It looks so nice, so easy to escape whenever we wish, but it is not so! Pleasure becomes our prison. CHRISTIANS DON'T WALLOW!
