TRUE LIGHT

March 10, 2019

A WALK WITH YOUR FATHER

Last summer my six-year-old son, Bobby, and I went on an Indian Guides camping trip. Now my idea of camping and roughing it is when the motel does not have room service, so I was quite apprehensive about this "camping" business, but very excited about having a father-son weekend. Around 100 dads and their sons went up to the foothills of North Carolina to a summer camp for kids. Our "tribe" has 11 dads and 11 boys, so it can be quite a commotion when we are all together. After being in the cabin and running around outside for awhile, I asked Bobby, "Hey buddy, do you want to go on a walk, just the two of us?" His little eyes lit up and he said, "Sure, Dad!"

We didn't walk very far, but the walk went a long way in bonding a father and his son. We held hands, explored the woods, ventured down some trails, and checked out the mess hall, the zip line, the bow and arrow range and the firing range. We picked up some rocks along the way, talked about different trees and sometimes we just walked silently along, looking in wonderment at a place we both had never been. As the silence grew I asked him, "Son, what are you thinking?" He replied, "I don't know Dad, I was just thinking how great this is, just to be walking along with you." As I held back my tears, I said, "You know Bobby, I was just thinking the same thing, how great it is to be walking along together just thinking about each other."

The Bible often speaks of "Walking in the Light" or "Walking with Christ" or "Walking with God." Have you been on a walk with your Heavenly Father lately? Just walking, listening and thinking about God? I love what Mother Teresa told Dan Rather in an interview. Dan Rather asked her what she did when she prayed and the wise woman said, "I don't talk, I listen," to which Rather replied, "What does God do?" Mother Teresa said, "He listens." Have you taken a stroll lately with God? Have you listened to Him? He's always there to listen to you. Next time you get in your car, cut the radio off, roll up the windows, enjoy the silence. Get up early and go sit in a quiet place and just listen. Go for a walk with God. Just you and Him, not you and 200 other people, not you and the radio, not you and the stresses bearing down on you, not the thoughts of worry and concerns. Just go for a walk and enjoy each other. Let Him know you love Him and feel His love for you. Go and listen.

I BELIEVE... that sometimes when I'm angry I have the right to be angry - but that doesn't give me the right to be cruel.
...that just because someone doesn't love you the way you want them to, it doesn't mean they don't love you with all they have.
...that maturity has more to do with what types of experiences you've had and what you've learned from them and less to do with how many birthdays you've celebrated.
...that it isn't always enough to be forgiven by others. Sometimes you have to learn to forgive yourself.
...that our background and circumstances may have influenced who we are, but we are responsible for who we become.
...that just because two people argue, it doesn't mean they don't love each other and just because they don't argue, it doesn't mean they do.
...that you shouldn't be so eager to find out a secret. It could change your life forever.
...that two people can look at the exact same thing and see something totally different.
...that your life can be changed in a matter of hours by people who don't even know you.
...that the people you care about most in life are taken from you too soon.
...that even when you think you have no more to give, when a friend cries out to you, you will find the strength to help.
