Bible Trivia:

The Bible characters Samson, David, and Benaiah all have one thing in common. What is it?

Last Week's Answer:

Jesus said, "Eli, Eli, Lama sabachthani" and it means, "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?" (Matthew 27:46)

As of Friday, Amy has received 30 photos out of 87 families listed in our directory. Please let her know if you need a photo taken and arrangements will be made.

TRUE LIGHT

June 16, 2019

The Ideal Dad
(from a kid's point of view)

F ... is for fast. He's got to be fast so he can chase me around the yard and run after the baseball when I don't throw it right at him and so he can run along beside me helping me learn to ride a bike.

A ... is for around. He needs to be around to take me fishing and to play catch and to go to the zoo and the park and other places. And he's got to be around so we can get to know each other, too. And, of course, he can't wrestle with me and play monster if he's not around.

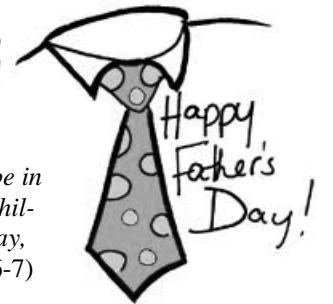

T ... is for teach. He's got to be able to teach me my "times tables" and tell me how to pronounce new words while I am reading to him. Plus he has to answer all my questions about why the sun is so bright and why worms can't fly and stuff.

H ... is for handy. The ideal dad has to fix a bicycle tire or chain. He has to know how to get up on the roof to get my Frisbee and he has to fix Mom's car and build a dog house. A guy has to be pretty handy to do all those things.

E ... is for easy. He should be easy to get along with so he's not always fussing at me. I also think he should be easy to talk into buying me a Coke or Sno-Cone every once in a while. And it should be fairly easy for him to find time for me.

R ... is for ready. He's got to be ready to take us all to Bible class every Sunday and Wednesday!
--Kippy Myers

And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you rise up. (Duet. 6: 6-7)

MARK YOUR CALENDAR:

TONIGHT: Ice Cream Social and picnic in the park. Worship service will begin at 5 p.m., followed by homemade ice cream and a picnic supper, all to be held at Bernie Park. There is a sign up sheet on the table in the foyer, please check it to see what you can help provide. In case of rain, the ice cream social will be moved to the fellowship room - worship times will remain the same

June 23: Congregational Birthday/Anniversary recognition in the fellowship room following evening worship service. If you have a birthday or anniversary this year, this recognition is for YOU! If you would like to help provide refreshments, please see Amy Thomason

A little girl followed her father as he carefully stepped through a new garden. She stepped exactly where he stepped and said, "Daddy, if you don't get mud on your feet, I won't get any mud on me!"

As we think about life this is also true because so many children follow in their father's footsteps. Children will say, "Daddy's not going to church; why do I have to go?"

If you knew you were walking down a road of danger, and there was a good chance your child would get hurt, would you continue to lead him that way? No! You would not because you care about the safety of your children. Should we care any less as to where we are leading our children eternally? If you're not leading your children to heaven, where ARE you leading them?

Paul gives this advice to fathers in Ephesians 6:4, And you fathers, do not provoke your children to wrath, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Stan Dauck (reprinted from 6/17/1990 True Light)
