TRUE LIGHT

July 21, 2019

Out of the Mouths of Babes

It's fun to think of biblical stories being summarized by children. Simplicity often equals clarity. Even when these imaginary children miss the true point, their points are often true.

Story: Eve and the serpent from Genesis 3
Summary: Don't listen to snakes

Story: Jonah and the fish
Summary: Really bad things happen when you mess with God

Story: David and Goliath
Summary: Big guys don't always win

Story: The parting of the Red Sea
Summary: God made water, so he can tell it what to do

Story: Jesus walking on the water
Summary: No biggie. Jesus walked on air when He went home to heaven

Story: God provides manna for Israel during the Exodus
Summary: Who complains about free cookies?

Story: Ruth and Naomi
Summary: Sometimes people like us better than we like ourselves

Story: Baby Jesus and His family go to Egypt
Summary: Never make fun of refugees

Story: The apostles preach at Pentecost
Summary: Most guys could preach better if they had fire on their heads

Story: The parable of the prodigal son
Summary: When you have no place left to go, you can always go home

Story: James and John offer to call down fire from heaven (Luke 9)
Summary: Just because you can doesn't mean you should

Story: Paul and Silas in jail in Philippi
Summary: God always knows how to shake things up

Story: The death of Absalom
Summary: The guy should have worn a hat. --Bill Bagents, Mars Hill Messenger
