TRUE LIGHT

September 15, 2019

Teach Us to Pray

This, then, is how you should pray: "Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name..." (Matthew 6: 9-10)

Hallowed? What does that mean? And, what does it mean when we pray, Hallowed be your name?

What are we praying for God to do? What is expected of us? How important is this in our lives today? Why do we need to say such a thing in our prayers?

Hallowed be your name, in the original language, is a request for God to consecrate his name and protect its holiness. The people of Israel in Jesus' time did not use the covenant name for God because of their deep respect for his holiness. They didn't want to misuse or abuse the name of the LORD. They probably pronounced the divine name something like Yahweh; we are not sure. The Hebrew spelling was without vowels (something akin to YHWH). God's people, Israel, have not spoken this divine name for hundreds and hundreds of years.

"our world has lost almost all sense of holiness, reverence, and genuine awe."

While this may seem strange to us, our world has lost almost all sense of holiness, reverence, and genuine awe. God's name, however, is holy and sacred. It must not be profaned. The name of God must not be made overly familiar or used flippantly. Indeed, no one should ever use God's name as a throwaway exclamation or a curse in coarse language. The third commandment of the Ten Commandments forbids misuse and abuse of God's name:

You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name (Exodus 20:7).

God is holy. Holy is the only description used three times together to describe the nature, glory, and exaltedness of God. In Isaiah's vision, the angels at the throne of God cried out: Holy, holy, holy is the LORD Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory (Isaiah 6:3).

The LORD is other than we are. He is what we are not and cannot be. God is higher, stronger, and more glorious than we can begin to imagine. While we may talk about Our Father in heaven, this is our human way of saying God is above us and beyond us. He is above time, existing in the past, present and future simultaneously. He is both the beginning and the end, the great I AM - the God who is and was and is to come (Exodus 3:13-14; Revelation 1:8).

Help Wanted!

Do you have a few hours to spare on Friday mornings? Our food pantry is growing and some of our helpers have had to step down or back. If you can help with this worthy cause, please see LaRhonda Billingsley.

And he answered them, "Whoever has two tunics is to share with him who has none, and whoever has food is to do likewise."

(Luke 3:11)

Making a Child Go to Church

Recently a mother asked me, "Should I make my son go to church?" I answered, "Yes, definitely." Then I explained: "What do you say when your son decides that he does not want to go to school? What did you do when he was little and did not want to take a bath? How did you react when he was sick and did not want his medicine?"

Every right-thinking parent recognizes the importance of these matters and gives the child no opportunity to decide for himself. Instead, parents explain the importance of going to school, taking a bath, or taking medicine when sick.

So, Mom and Dad, take time to explain the importance of going to church; then simply say to your son or daughter, "In our family we all go to church and that includes you."

Train up a child in the way he should go... (Proverbs 22:6)
